

DON MAXIMIANO

Founder's Reserve

The Best of 3 Decades

Since its first vintage in 1983, Don Maximiano Founder's Reserve has been recognized as a world-class wine with a history of awards and acknowledgements from every corner of the world.

In this special edition we have chosen the best of each decade, highlighting the finesse and elegance characteristic of this wine. With two bottles of each vintage, this vertical case contains, without doubt, the best of Viña Errázuriz.

1984, the beginning of something great.

In 1983, Alfonso Chadwick Errázuriz, descendent of Don Maximiano, assigned his son, Eduardo Chadwick, the mission of continuing the family tradition and taking charge of Viña Errázuriz.

Just one year later, and with nearly three years of ageing, this wine presents a brick-red colour and aromas of ripe red fruit that recalls plums and a bit of cherries. The palate shows firm tannins and the character of a great wine.

1990, the winery strengthens

At 120 years since its creation, Viña Errázuriz reached a truly international level with tremendous milestones during the 1990s, such as the joint venture with Robert Mondavi the 1990's, two milestones as the Joint venture with Robert Mondavi and also pioneering in distribution in the UK market through Hatch Mansfield distribution company.

Brick red in colour, with a nose that shows notes of leather, cigar box, and ripe red fruits. On the palate the wine presents an acidity that lends nerve and freshness with flavours of red and black fruit, good sweetness, and a broad and lingering finish.

2006, one of the best

The 2006 vintage has been one of the most award-winning wines in the world, with 94 points by Robert Parker, who commented: "This impeccably balanced wine will benefit from further ageing, and its best moment for drinking will range from 2015 to 2031."

Ruby-red in colour with a glistening violet hue, the nose it shows an excellent maturity accompanied by mild notes of black tea and a bit of dried fruits with nicely integrated oak. This is a wine in excellent balance with fresh fruit.
