6 BOTTLES OF CHAMPAGNE PERFECT FOR ANY NEW YEAR'S PARTY

Looking for something bubbly to help ring in 2018? We've got you covered with the best champagnes for your New Year's Eve party—on any budget. Whether you're looking for solid but affordable standards or a single statement bottle meant to impress, here are six fantastic picks for the special night.

Ayala Rosé No. 8 Brut

Don't forget something pink. Ayala Champagnes have returned to the U.S. after being recently acquired by Bollinger. This limited-edition 2008 rosé offers everything you want in the style: crispy, bright flavors with notes of berries, blackcurrant, and pear. Only 200 cases were shipped to the U.S., so you'll likely be showing guests something they haven't seen before.
